

AUTHORS LIST

Lilit Harutyunyan - PhD, Associate Prof., Head of the Department of Arab countries, the Institute of Oriental studies NAS RA. Main fields of her research are: Modernization and transformation processes in the MENA region, Modern history of Lebanon and Syria, Non-Muslim (Christian & Jewish) communities of the Arab countries.

Yeva Harutyunyan - PhD, Senior Researcher of the Department of International Relations at the Institute of Oriental Studies, NAS RA. Main fields of her research include Japan's policy in the Middle East, Central Asia and the South Caucasus.

Astghik Hayrapetyan - PhD student at the Department of International Relations, Institute of Oriental Studies, NAS RA. Main scope of her academic research encompasses the US post-Cold war Middle East policy and its key thrusts (under the concept of Pax Americana), the impact of political-ideological elites on the US Middle East policy during the presidency of G.W. Bush.

Lilit Mayilyan - MA in Political Science and International Affairs, American University of Armenia. Research interests: Caucasus Politics, Middle East Affairs, Peace and Conflict Studies, Media and the government.