

EDITORS' FOREWORD

The Armenian State Pedagogical University after Khachatur Abovyan and the Editorial Board of WISDOM are delighted to present the 14th issue of the journal (the 1st of 2020) to the scientific community.

Given the growing number of respected and groundbreaking articles submitted to the journal three issues instead of two will be published per year.

The 16 articles published in the WISDOM 1(14), 2020 issue reflect and discourse the problems traditionally addressed in the various sections of the journal: Epistemology, philosophy of science, metaphilosophy, argumentation, communication; Social and political philosophy; History of philosophy; Philosophy of art. This issue is offering a novel section, Philosophy of law, which addresses the following matters: fundamental rights in philosophy of law, freedom of thought and manipulation, aggression and crime, international and national criminal law, patriotism and Armenian law.

The observations, achievements and positive feedback received on the already published issues of the journal are the evidence of the significance and value of the articles published so far. The Editorial Board extends the sincerest gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, professional critics and assessors of the papers involved. We extend our special appreciation to Khachatur Abovyan Armenian State Pedagogical University's Administration for its consistent support for publishing the periodical.

Given the significance of the underlying principle of pluralism over scientific issues and freedom of speech, we should remind that the authors carry primary responsibility for the viewpoints introduced in their papers which may not coincide with those of the Editorial Board.
