

A composite image featuring a human skeleton on the left, a coat of arms in the center, and a large Armenian cross on the right. The skeleton is shown in a standing pose, facing forward. The coat of arms is a heraldic shield with various symbols, including a crown on top and a cross on the right side. The large Armenian cross is a stylized cross with a central circle and four arms, each ending in a circle.