

Volume 10, no. 2, 2025

International Journal of Armenian Genocide Studies 10:2

Special Issue:

Law, Activism and the International Recognition of the Armenian Genocide

Special Issue Editor: Edita Gzoyan

Guest Editor: Julien Zarifian

CONTENT

Julien Zarifian, Edita Gzoyan

Introduction: Law, Activism, and the International Recognition of the Armenian Genocide..... 5

Rosa Ana Alija Fernández

Trapped in Legal Constraints or in States' Own History? International Law as an Explanation for the Reluctance to Recognize the Armenian Genocide..... 10

Thomas Hochmann

*In the Legal Limbo?
Constitutional Debates on the Recognition of the Armenian Genocide in France.....* 37

Federico Gaitan Hairabedian

Bridging Histories: Argentina's Transitional Justice Process and the Recognition of the Armenian Genocide 53

Melanie O'Brien

Academic Activism and Armenian Genocide Recognition in Australia..... 76

Mathieu Soula

The Armenian Model: The Recognition of Genocides in France 103

Sophie-Zoé Toulajian

When Armenians Take to the Streets: The 1979 March from Lyon and the Struggle for Genocide Recognition in France 125

About the Journal..... 142