

FORMATION OF THE ARMED FORCES IN THE THIRD REPUBLIC OF ARMENIA

By: Artsrun Hovhannisyan

Summary

The research is the first step to discuss the process of the formation of the Armenian armed forces in the early 1990, which ran parallel with military actions, in desperate economic conditions and under the blockade, and in general during the formation of the new Armenian statehood, as well. In addition, whole process of the military actions, the different battles and operations, and also the Armenian military culture and the ways of thinking are presented. In the separate chapters of scientific research the stages of development of the army and main post- Ceasefire processes are studied - in short, the way from a so-called fighting groups to an organized armed forces and the process of armed forces transition to an army of new era. This is a difficult period for the Armenian people, which was hardly overcome, but it was an opportunity for the Armenian people to win the war. The research consists of three chapters.

FROM THE HISTORY OF THE POLICE OF ARMENIA

By: Sargsyan R. H. PhD in Economics, Colonel of Police
Sahakyan R. O. Doctor of Sciences (History)

A short book-review by Lieutenant-General of Police Hovhannes Varyan

The authors' good command of historical, legal and economic matters as well as the knowledge of police affairs guaranteed the effectiveness and significance of this work. It is based on facts and archive documents being an exceptional phenomenon. At every step is possible to see news and findings.

In 1990s many officers devoted themselves to the Artsakh Liberation war, as well as transmitted their exemplary working style to the next generation.

This work together with the preceding one aims at making a substantial contribution to the policing theory. It has been in great demand for a long time, because if a policeman doesn't make use of a theory he does make use of a bad one.
